

SNMMI welcomes	You to Patient Education Day
	Session Description
General Session 10 a.m. to 3:15 pm 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 pm	For the 4th year, the SNMMI Patient Advocacy Advisory Board has developed a “Patient Program” to address key topics of interest to the patient and patient advocacy community. This program provides a unique opportunity to network with passionate advocates and leading experts in colorectal cancer, prostate cancer, thyroid cancer, and neuroendocrine tumors. To register for this FREE event and get more information about the Patient Education Day at the St. Louis Convention Center on June 8th, visit www.snmmi.org/2014PED. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn nuclear medicine and molecular imaging is and how it can help you • Ask questions and engage with patients and medical professionals • Hear about the latest advances in technology and treatment for colorectal cancer, prostate cancer, thyroid cancer, and neuroendocrine tumors • Listen to a panel of patients and their doctors as they share their stories about how their relationship has improved their care management. Feel empowered through the stories of other cancer survivors as they share their personal journeys about how nuclear medicine and molecular imaging has made a difference in their lives or the lives of their loved ones.
3:15 – 6:00 pm Breakout Session 3: The Nitty Gritty of Thyroid Cancer I131 Ablation – Interactive Session SNMMI, the American Thyroid Association and ThyCa: Thyroid Cancer Survivors’ Inc.	Meet Program Director of ThyCa: Thyroid Cancer Survivors, Inc., in St. Louis, Tom Engle, and hear his story about why he became a thyroid cancer advocate. Meet the renown author of “Thyroid Cancer: A Guide for Patients,” Dr. Douglas Van Nostrand, Director of Nuclear Medicine at the Washington Hospital Center in DC. He will discuss I-131 Remnant Ablation and Adjuvant Treatment for Thyroid Cancer and answer any questions you may have. Join the open forum style interactive discussion with Dr. Van Nostrand, Tom Engle and other patients, caregivers, and medical professionals as they talk about I-131 Ablation and Adjuvant Treatment for Thyroid Cancer. Meet the physician and ask any

Patient Education Day held by the Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging (SNMMI)
 Sunday, June 8, 2014
 St. Louis Convention Center

SNMMI welcomes	You to Patient Education Day
	Session Description
	questions you may have about thyroid cancer and I-131 treatment. Interested in learning more about the changing treatment protocol, including watchful waiting? Come join the discussion with speakers Tom Engle, Program Director of ThyCa, and Dr. Van Nostrand, Director of Nuclear Medicine at Washington Hospital Center in DC, at this session entitled “The Nitty Gritty of Thyroid Cancer I131 Ablation – Interactive Session.” This session is FREE and will take place at SNMMI’s 2014 Patient Education day in St. Louis on June 8th. For more information and to register, please visit www.snmmi.org/2014PED.

