

American Thyroid Association (ATA) Training Verification Letter for Associate Members

Joining the American Thyroid Association (ATA) is easy! All that is needed for Associate membership is a completed electronic or print membership application and a letter from their program director, program coordinator, or program administrator confirming their fellow, resident, and/or student's program start and end dates.

If you would like to confirm your trainees' program status now please fill out the following form with their information and return to the ATA by email, mail or fax.
