Why Should You Attend the 81st Annual Meeting of the ATA in Indian Wells, California?

The American Thyroid Association is the leading organization focused on thyroid biology and the prevention and treatment of thyroid disorders through excellence and innovation in research, clinical care, education, and public health. Earn CME credits, experience innovative talks, participate in interactive sessions, and develop professionally with state of the art information.

Chaired by Anthony Hollenberg & Martha Zeiger, the ATA Program Committee continues to offer the outstanding agenda expected by those who choose the ATA meeting as their 'favorite' scientific educational experience - year after year. Past attendees attest to the unmatched excellence and environment of the ATA meeting noting:

- "Great combination of clinical and basic research"
- "Well organized and top notch"
- "Presentations and posters are excellent"
- "The science improves every year"

'State of the Art' Programming and Opportunities

At the 81st Annual Meeting of the American Thyroid Association, attendees will experience top-notch educational sessions, great networking opportunities and unmatched collegiality -- all under one-roof. Hear clinical, translational and basic research presentations on a variety of thyroid-related topics including imaging and thyroid disease, pregnancy and thyroid, molecular markers, new approaches to thyroid surgery, pathology and cytopathology, obesity and metabolism, and bench to bedside thyroid hormone analogues. Be a part of customized educational sessions and meeting discounts specifically designed for fellows. Get the latest updates on ATA management guidelines and practice recommendations including the soon to be released hyperthyroidism, thyroid and pregnancy, and radiation safety best practices documents.

Who Will Be There?

The community of endocrinologists, internists, surgeons, basic scientists, nuclear medicine scientists, pathologists, endocrine and surgery fellows, nurses, physician assistants and other health care professionals who wish to broaden and update their knowledge of the thyroid gland and its disorders.

Where is the Meeting?

Nestled at the base of the Santa Rosa Mountains in Indian Wells near Palm Springs, CA, the Renaissance Esmeralda Resort & Spa is the Sonoran Desert's finest oasis, a perfect setting for attendees from around the world to meet.

Join the ATA!
